Grace Group Questions for this Sunday's Sermon:

GG Questions

1) Reflect on Acts 1-2. The apostles had to wait for the Holy Spirit to come so that they could have power from on high for their ministry. This is the way the Lord is at work in our world today. Spend some time discussing your “waiting” on the Holy Spirit as you live or the lack thereof.

2) If we are all to be led by the Holy Spirit, how do we walk together as a body of believers in decision making? Read Hebrews 13:17 (along with pertinent parts of Acts 15, esp vv 22, 25, 28).

Does this seem unreasonable? Have you had difficulties with the decisions of church leaders in the past? What is the best way to resolve issues that might arise? Does Acts 15 seem to be a little too idyllic? Remember the beautiful work of the Holy Spirit as found in Ephesians 4-5 (singing, gratitude, and submission).

3) Reflect on the past couple of weeks and the focus we have had on the Holy Spirit. God is calling us to something. He is impressing on our congregation the need to become more aware of his leading. He wants our attention. Let's take this seriously. Pray for one another that you would in fact be led by the Holy Spirit.

4) Finally, pray for our leaders. They seriously do seek the Lord in their decision making, but they must stay the course. And pray for our body that there would be a sweet unity as they follow the decisions of our leaders. May the Lord continue to bless us in the days ahead.
